GROWING IN FAITH GARDEN

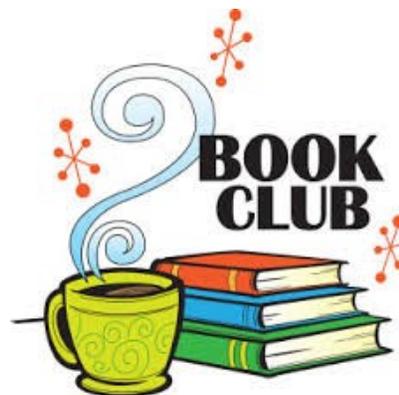

Need a quiet conversation with God? Please feel free to use our garden as a space of your own. You don't need to sign up for a plot to enjoy all that He provides for us. Stop by anytime to pull a few weeds, water the plants, or just take a minute to breathe.

HAND2HAND

We are helping 2 different hand2hand programs.

1. Lunch and dinner for Roosevelt Elementary-Carol Garnsey and Youth Group help package.
2. Breakfast and snacks for Eagle Crest-COS collects the food items and package them and delivers them to Eagle Crest. We do this in conjunction with Westshore Community. Westshore combines the lunch and dinner foods with the breakfast and snacks. Westshore and COS delivers the food bags to Eagle Crest. COS delivers the food every 3 weeks. See posters on the walls in the Fellowship Room for food that you can contribute.

Our COS book club has been meeting all summer and plans to continue into the winter. There are about 12 participating in the book club. So far we have read:

Nine O'clock in the Morning by Dennis Bennett a true story of an Episcopal Priest in Van Nuys, CA, after he preached a Sunday morning sermon April 3, 1960 about the underground Pentecostal Movement that was quietly racing through so many churches in America.

The Prayer Box by Lisa Wingate a grab your heart story about faith, the healing power of love and how both are often found in unlikely places.

The Gate by Dann Stouten who is a former senior pastor at Community Reformed Church in Zeeland. A fictional book about a planned getaway with his wife turns into a shopping trip for the girls. An ad for a vacation cottage catches his eye and he sets off in search of a much needed break. When he arrives he finds something far different than what he expected.

The Dog Who Was There by Ron Marasco a story about Barley, a dog, his life from birth with many Masters, who was there when Jesus was crucified. This story is told from the dog's perspective and a total delight to read. Most of us cried in parts of it!

Same Kind of Different as Me by Ron Hall & Denver Moore, a true story of an unlikely friendship between a modern-day slave, an international art dealer and the unlikely woman who bound them together.

We meet the 4th Monday of the month to discuss the book. We would love to have you join us. Contact Ann Campbell or Jenni Brinker.
